Dear Philbert Siama,

Application Number: AUL24-17

Congratulations! You have been selected for a Mashariki Scholarship to attend the Professional Diploma in Urban Development at the Africa Urban Lab, a research center at the Africa School of Economics-Zanzibar. The first block of the Diploma program will take place in Fumba Town, Zanzibar, from November 18th to November 29th, 2024. After this initial block, students will return home to work remotely on their Capstone Projects. The second block of the program is then scheduled for April 2025, also in Fumba Town, Zanzibar.

The Africa Urban Lab will administer your scholarship. Please find attached the Obligations for Scholarship Holders Rules and Conditions document. This information outlines the scholarship allowances and administrative procedures.

Composition of the Scholarship

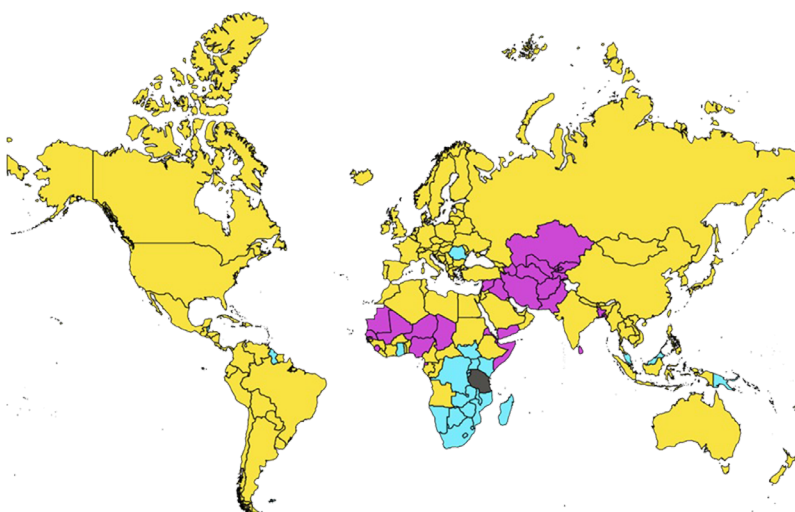

This scholarship offers awards you a waiver on the tuition fees. It will cover the cost of flight, accommodation, visa, and local health insurance costs if needed.

Flight and Insurance

On written request, the Africa Urban Lab will help arrange your round-trip flight. Additionally, the AUL will provide health insurance coverage for the duration of the course, as required for entry into the country. To assist with booking your flight and securing your health insurance, please contact Jai at Jaila@cci.city and make sure heba.elhanafy@aul.city is cc'd in the email.

Visa

Below is an outline indicating the visa requirements for different countries, including information about those who need a visa, those exempt from visa requirements, and those requiring a referral visa. Note that your situation may vary, so please check with your country as to any additional requirements.
